

The Elevation Grant Program

ADDRESSING THE ROOT CAUSES OF VIOLENT CRIME. EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES.

The Elevation Grant Program (previously known as the Violent Crime Prevention Grant Program) is a partnership between The City of Indianapolis and The Indianapolis Foundation. The program will invest $45 million in neighborhoods over the next three years (2022, 2023, and 2024) to address the root causes of violent crime in Indianapolis through a comprehensive approach, including neighborhood empowerment and community building.

With supporting funds from the federal American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA), the grant program will distribute five times more money to community organizations than last year. The Elevation Grant Program will feature multiple grant rounds. The desired outcomes are the following: addressing the numerous root causes of violent crime, increasing resident-led solutions (community building), discovering new innovative efforts, investing in infrastructure development for grassroots organizations, and ensuring that qualitative metrics (hope, abundance, peace, resilience, and safe) are expressed and elevated.

The grant program plans to focus part of its investment pipeline on grassroots organizations, prioritizing those led by residents of the communities they serve. The program defines a grassroots organization as a resident-led organization/entity operating under community values, shared power and decision making, and supported by an organizational budget of up to $250,000.

Funds from ARPA supporting the grant program will involve federal requirements for eligible organizations. The federal requirements include the following:

- Are place-based efforts designed to promote neighborhood safety and reduce or prevent crime in a specific geographical area as defined by a neighborhood and/or community.
- Led by engaged and mobilized residents and community leaders.
- Focus their efforts on providing supportive services (such as employment, education, mentoring, recreation, mental health supports, and family support services) to youth and young adults who face unique challenges and may have a higher likelihood of community disengagement without the proper intervention strategies.
- Partner with public agencies in collaboration (The Office of Public Health & Safety, the National Institute for Criminal Justice Reform, law enforcement, courts, probation, and parole) to help prevent crime in our community.

Geographic Restriction: Marion County

Interest Areas: Thriving Neighborhoods, Empowered Youth/Young Adult, and Restoration & Resilience (see explanation below)

Priority Population: Individuals meeting the criteria below:

- Black/Latinx males between the ages of 18-35.

Considering being a Fiscal Sponsor:

- Organizations too small to manage the financial reporting requirements internally or groups/individuals without a 501(c)(3) may need a fiscal sponsor.
- The fiscal sponsor must be another 501(c)(3) nonprofit that must adhere to all applicable grant rules and regulations. Any misuse of federal funds becomes the sole responsibility of the fiscal sponsor.
- If two or more agencies partner to pursue a grant, the Federal government acknowledges one agency as the fiscal sponsor (lead). The fiscal sponsor receives the funds and ensures that the funds are spent in accordance with the rules and regulations.
- A written agreement between the two organizations should be established prior to applying for the funds. Example of fiscal sponsorship agreement

2022 GRANTS PROGRAM INTEREST AREAS FOR ROUND ONE

THRIVING NEIGHBORHOODS

Place-based efforts are designed to support neighborhoods that promote safety, strengthen social networks among residents and reduce or prevent crime in a specific geographical area as defined by a neighborhood and/or community and led by engaged residents and community leaders. Organizations applying for support in this area must be able to measure how efforts have increased residents' safety and awareness in a particular area through resident surveys, increased crime reporting, or using crime statistics. These efforts may include:

- a focus on sustained efforts to engage residents and community over time to increase social bonds and decrease crime within specific neighborhoods, zip codes, or other geographical areas (i.e., crime watch, block parties, bystander safety workshops and trainings, resource fairs, anti-violence messaging campaigns, etc.)
- a focus on building community partnerships with public systems (law enforcement, court systems, prosecutor's office, and corrections) within a specific geographical area to help reduce criminal activity by assisting with solving crimes, increasing crime reporting, or providing information to help prevent the occurrence of a crime (i.e., reentry resource fairs for families & community, driver's license reinstatement fairs, engage in truth and reconciliation process to increase public trust, etc.)
- a focus on improving physical assets and spaces within a neighborhood that has the potential of improving resident safety and/or deterring criminal behavior and/or activity. (i.e., physical design and beautification to promote a sense of ownership and decrease stigmatization of an undesirable area)

EMPOWERED YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT

These programs focus their efforts on providing supportive services (such as employment, education, mentoring, recreation, and family support services) to youth and young adults who face unique challenges and may have a higher likelihood of community disengagement without the proper intervention strategies. Organizations applying in this area should be able to demonstrate the impact of services and the ability to improve current conditions of program participants. A formal mentorship component should include regular meetings (at least three to four times a month) of sufficient duration (six to twelve months). Priorities for organizations that provide services to both youth and the parent/guardians.

This effort may include a focus to increase protective factors and develop resiliency skills of specifically targeted youth and adult populations, including education, employment, and housing services:
